Reception—Mrs. Rupert F. Asplund of 416 South Seventh street has issued invitations for a reception next Saturday afternoon, May 2. A large number of invitations have been issued and in view of the preparations being made the reception will doubtless surpass any similar affair in Albuquerque this year.

Mr. George H. Droppelman of Louisville, Ky., arrived in Albuquerque today and will be entertained for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Eakin of 915 South Third street. Mr. Droppelman is to act as best man at the wedding of his brother, Mr. Henry Droppelman, and Miss Gertrude Eakin next Thursday evening.

Miss Wilma Onstead, who has been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Twist, 1213 West Roma avenue, expects to leave Tuesday for Dawson, Minn., where she will spend the summer months at the home of her parents. Miss Onstead will be accompanied as far as Kansas City by Miss Beatrice Lathrop, en route for Delphi, Ind.

One of the pleasantest meetings of the local order of Elks this year was held Wednesday evening. A large number of new members were initiated into the order, and at the close of the business meeting, Signor Bistoff's "Mullum in Parvo" orchestra gave an excellent program lasting nearly two hours, after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

Tuesday Club—The ladies of the Tuesday Literary club were very pleasantly entertained this week at the home of Mrs. William H. Parney at 808 Park avenue. The program as prepared evoked of especial interest, and consisted of a lively discussion of the third act of "A Winter's Tale," followed by an interesting article on "Famous English Actresses," by Miss Bessie Baldrige.

The annual ball given in the Elks' hall room last Tuesday evening by the Society of Engineers of the University was one of the delightful affairs of the week. Nearly 200 guests were present, including several members of the faculty among whom were President W. G. T. T. Dean C. E. Hodgins, Prof. M. E. Angell, Prof. A. M. Espinosa and Prof. A. M. Otwell. The dance was given in the interests of the Athletic association. Schroeder's orchestra furnished the music.

Woman's Club—The regular meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon was devoted to an interesting program, both literary and musical. The meeting was opened by a clever piano solo by Miss Marion Bradley, followed by a highly interesting talk by Mrs. A. B. Stroup on "A Visit to the Penitentes' Village." Mrs. S. B. Miller then favored the audience with a vocal solo after which roll call was given. The answers were based on "What Would You Like to Do for Albuquerque?" Miss Irene Reynolds then closed the program with a well rendered vocal solo.

Indiana Card Club—Mrs. S. R. Guynn of 615 South Edith street was hostess to the ladies of the Indiana Afternoon club last Monday afternoon. The affair was given somewhat as a farewell party for Mrs. J. H. Hartley, who leaves Tuesday for her home in Indiana. The afternoon was devoted to cards, in which honors for first and second scores were awarded to Mrs. Rupe and Mrs. Stiffler. Light refreshments were served.

Those present included: Mrs. Es-selburn, Mrs. O. P. Zimmer, Miss M. H. Truesdale, Mrs. Rupe, Miss Beatrice Lathrop, Mrs. Louis Ingles, Mrs. Homer Stitzer, Mrs. Stiffler and Mrs. Guynn.

Dinner Party—Mrs. James T. Johnston of 309 South Broadway will entertain tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at an informal dinner party in honor of Miss Gertrude A. Eakin, whose marriage to Mr. Henry Droppelman of Louisville, Ky., takes place next Thursday evening. Cards will be laid for twelve guests. The table decorations are to be formed from sprays of evergreens, ferns and lilies. The invited guests are: Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rodgers, Miss Elaine Rodgers, Mrs. Rose Henry, Mr. W. T. Pogue, Mrs. Eugene E. Murray of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. Edgar Parke, Miss Ella Boylan, Mr. George Brockman, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Eakin, Mr. Henry Droppelman, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

Farewell Party—Miss Beatrice Lathrop, who has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Ingles, of 915 South Second street the past seven months, will leave next Tuesday morning for her home at Delphi, Ind. Miss Lathrop will not return to her home directly but will remain several days in Kansas City, Mo., as the guest of her brother and will later visit relatives at Chicago. Miss Lathrop is a highly attractive and talented young lady and a musician of exceptional ability. She has made a number of friends during her short visit and is especially well known in musical circles. Miss Lathrop has been honorary guest at a number of pleasant social affairs the past two weeks, among which were a number of delightfully informal dinner parties. On Tuesday evening of this week Miss Mabel Campbell of 216 West Coal avenue very pleasantly entertained at cards complimentary to Miss Lathrop. The evening was devoted to high five, in which honors for high score were awarded to Miss Lathrop and Mr. Campbell. Delightful refreshments were served.

The guests included: Miss Beatrice Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Fee, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ingles, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Mabel Campbell, Mr. Will Ryan and Mr. Roy Campbell.

Wedding—Among the several important social affairs which are scheduled for the coming week, the wedding of Miss Gertrude A. Eakin of Albuquerque and Mr. Henry Droppelman of Louisville, Ky., stands out prominently.

Miss Eakin is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Eakin of 915 South Third street. Mr. Droppelman came to New Mexico about eight months ago from Louisville, Ky., and has since made his headquarters at Carthage, N. M., where he is engaged in the general mercantile business.

The wedding will take place next Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eakin, at 8 o'clock. Father A. M. Mandahart of the Immaculate Conception church, officiating. The wedding will be delightfully formal, and attended by nearly seventy-five guests.

The decorations will be especially handsome, a dainty color scheme of pale blue and white being featured. The members of the bridal party will be: Mrs. Charles Melini, matron of honor; Mr. George H. Droppelman of Louisville, Ky., brother of the groom, as best man; and Miss Mary Rosch and Miss Catherine Schmalmaek as flower girls.

At the close of the ceremony a wedding supper will be served at the home of the bride, after which the young couple will leave for an extended bridal tour through southern California. They will be at home to their friends after May 15 at Carthage, N. M.

Easter Dance—Nearly seventy-five guests were in attendance at the regular party of the Albuquerque Commercial club last Wednesday evening. Preparations had been made to make the Easter party the feature of the series at which the club entertains during the winter, and the expectations of the guests were realized to the last detail. Special music was furnished for the dancing by James Devine's six-piece orchestra, and the two large ball rooms were thrown into one. Elaborate refreshments were served.

A pleasing feature of the evening was the program which preceded the dancing, given by Signor Bistoff's orchestra.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKee and Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Chabourne, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Saint, Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mandell, Mr. and Mrs. Byersford of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Grunsfeld, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. BRYAN PREFERS PETTIGREW TO FRANCIS

Would Rather Have South Dakota Senator Manage Campaign Than Missourian.

Washington, April 25.—It is gossip in Democratic circles that Mr. Bryan has intimated that he would like to have ex-Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota manage his campaign in the event of his third nomination for president. No one can offer anything more direct than mere speculation on the subject, and the Missourians will continue to suggest the fitness of ex-Governor Francis for the office.

It is known that W. R. Hearst at one time wanted Mr. Pettigrew to manage his political affairs, and a widely circulated report had it that the New York publisher offered to attach the South Dakota to his payroll at $15,000 a year. In the contest this year between Bryan and Johnson in South Dakota Pettigrew led the Bryan forces to victory.

The selection of a chairman of the national committee directly concerns the candidate for president. It is entirely proper that the candidate should name the man who is to manage his campaign. The most that any one could do would be to make a suggestion. I would be immensely pleased if Mr. Bryan could see his way clear to the selection of Mr. Francis and that Francis would accept.

"Such a selection not only would appeal to the entire country as indicating that the Democrats were out to win a presidential battle, but it would give us a business management of the committee affairs as well as good political direction.

Mr. Bryan will need for chairman of the national committee just such a man as Francis. No one the Republicans could select would be his equal in all the things that are essential for the position. It will all depend on how Mr. Bryan looks at the situation. He may have some other man in mind. If he hasn't the suggestion of Francis' name ought to appeal strongly to him."

From the Democratic viewpoint here Francis would have every possible advantage over Pettigrew. But what the politicians believe will have nothing to do with the selection if Mr. Bryan has made up his mind. If Bryan had listened to the politicians in 1896 he would not have chosen Senator Jones for a pilot, and in 1900 the protests against Jones were loud and numerous. Senator Jones intimated that he had not had half a chance in 1896, and Mr. Bryan agreed that this was true. It is now believed that a half chance in 1896 and a half chance in 1900 makes a full chance for Senator Jones and that his name will not be considered.

Cham Clark of Missouri, always a Bryan man, in discussing the chairmanship of the national committee,
